NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Every court of Europe has sent expressions of condolence to the Imperial family of Russia.

The Senate made an attempt at organization yesterday. Mahone voted with the Republicans on all motions.

The city election at Oakland Monday was carried by the Citizen's ticket against the straight Republicans.

A Nihilist says that the Czar was slain because he would not grant constitutional Government to the Poles.

John Sherman will make a hot fight for Stanley Matthews. Conkling, Logan and David Davis will leave no stone unturned to beat him.

A conference which is quietly going on in Chicago leads to rumors that a party of 10 persons are organizing a syndicate to consolidate the Northwestern, Northern Pacific and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul roads.

It is the prevailing opinion at St. Petersburg that the new Czar of Russia will find serious obstacles confronting him at the outset of his reign. Rumors of Nihilist plots are rife, and fears of outbreaks and further assassinations are entertained.

In the Kallioch case yesterday morning the prosecution introduced a number of witnesses in rebuttal. All were persons who either lived or happened to be in the vicinity of the Chronicle office on the night of the shooting, and testified to hearing but five shots.

EXTRAVAGANT.

We beg to remind the Board of Commissioners for the building of the Insane Asylum that $80,000 is not an extraordinary sum for them to expend in carrying out the provisions of the Act under which they are acting. We expect of them the same careful regard for the State in this matter as it they were spending their own private money. Their decision in allowing only $60,000 for the building we heartily endorse. But their allowance of $1,000 for the successful plan is rather extravagant. The sum of $500 would have been ample. The celebrated Cook plans for an Asylum to cost $325,000 were only an expense to the State of $615, and there is no sense in allowing $1,000 for a $60,000 structure. We want no "relief" bills on this Asylum.

Proposed Encampment.

An effort is being made to have the annual encampment of the first California Artillery regiment, Fourth Brigade, held at Glenbrook Park, between Grass Valley and Nevada City, in July next. Col. Haymond has notified the Nevada Light Guard (Co. C.) that the desire was to hold it at that place if suitable arrangements could be made as to the securing of funds for expenses—about $1,000. Accordingly the following committee was appointed to canvass the two places, with a view to raising the amount by subscription: G. S. Hupp, G. Von Schmittsburg and I. J. Rolfe, of Nevada city, and John F. Kidder, M. Byrne, Jr., and E. E. Appleton, of Grass Valley. It is understood that the citizens of both places look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the proposed visit of the regiment, and it is believed no difficulty will be experienced in raising the required amount.

There are by actual count 110 churches, chapels or missions in San Francisco, of which 7 are Hebrew, 20 Roman Catholic and 77 Protestant. The Protestant churches have a membership of some 48,000; the Catholic, about 26,000; the Hebrew, 3,000. The seating capacity of these churches is about 68,000 but they are seldom over two-thirds full so that 44,000 churchgoers is all that that city of 234,000 inhabitants has.

The Republican Senators, in caucus, agreed on the distribution of Senate committees. Morrill will be Chairman of Finance, Conkling of Commerce, Logan of War, Edmunds of Judiciary, Mahone of Agriculture, Plumb of Public Lands, Saunders of Territories, Teller of Railroads, Hill (Col.) of Mines, Jones (Nev.) of Contingent Expenses.

The Virginia Footlight, in its new and enlarged form, presents a very handsome appearance. Further improvement is promised at an early date.

The Republicans in the Senate have agreed upon Sharon, Ferry, Jones of Nevada, Morrill and Allison for their Finance Committee.

Ben Hill woke up the wrong man again. Mahone can readjust him completely.

THE CENTRAL PACIFIC'S NEW RAILROAD IN NEVADA.

According to the Sacramento Bee it "is semi-officially announced that the Central Pacific people will, so soon as they shall have their Southern road completed to the Gulf of Mexico, turn their attention to making a new road from the vicinity of Winnemucca to Oregon, which will have branches in that State connecting with the Northern Pacific Railroad and with all important points. And at the same time that this Northern road to Oregon shall be under way another one, starting from Winnemucca and running east of the Sierra and south to Colton, in San Bernardino county, or to Maricopa Wells, in Arizona, will be made. The Southern road now circles and curves through and over the Tahachapi Mountains where the line is crooked and the grade heavy and runs out of the proper line some 150 miles to reach Los Angeles. This new line from the vicinity of Colton or Maricopa Wells, east of the Sierra and through the Winnemucca region to Oregon, will enable that road to carry all the grain from Eastern Oregon, which is a great wheat-growing country, to the Gulf of Mexico, and land it in Liverpool at cheaper rates than the ships are now charging, and there will then be no scarcity of transportation. That portion of Oregon which is really, for farming purposes, the best part of the State, is now a barren waste, so far as cultivation of produce for export goes, because there is no means of transportation to market, and under the impulse of this road that State will soon rise into opulence and grandeur. The freight to Liverpool from eastern Oregon will not be over $14 per ton for wheat, say $12 for the railway and $2 for ocean carriage, as the White Star line has offered to contract to take all that can be given them from the Gulf of Mexico to Liverpool for $3 per ton. And in addition to this cheap freight, which is less than ships charge, the farmer will save his sacks, much insurance and fully two-thirds the usual time in transportation—and in this case time is money. In their returning ships they will bring passengers, carrying them from Liverpool to California and Oregon, for $60 per head, and perhaps less. And all this will be done inside of three years. The want of money is the only reason that prevents it from being done in the coming eighteen months. Of course California will be as much benefited as Oregon by this new enterprise. There will be ocean competition here for carrying wheat but there will be no such competition in eastern Oregon. Whoever will trace upon the map this new line from Arizona to Oregon will see that it places eastern Oregon almost as near Galveston as San Francisco is. The Southern road may be completed to the waters of the Atlantic in time to carry much of the next wheat crop by that route."

There is no doubt of the construction of this new road by the Central Pacific people. It has long been a favorite scheme of Gov. Stanford's. His great mind grasps the future as well as the present. He believes that the Gulf of Mexico is the great and coming center of transportation for the world. He firmly expects that the Southern Pacific will carry California's wheat, and drive the ships away from the Bay of San Francisco. The extent, area, and capabilities of the section of country between the Mississippi river and Pacific Ocean, is sufficient to make it the Empire of the world. In his opinion the greatest undeveloped wheat region in the United States is that section of country east of the Cascades, in Oregon and Washington Territory; eight millions of bushels of wheat were shipped from the Willamette Valley last year. Gov. Stanford says this freight must go to Europe via the Gulf of Mexico, and that it must have a railroad right north and south through Nevada, connecting with the Southern Pacific below the Cajon Pass. Such a road will be 900 miles in length; have an easy grade; will be free from snow, and will have the advantage of the Northern Pacific or any other route that can be named, by 1,000 miles. That is: Grain can be taken to the Gulf and thence to Europe by this route, a great deal cheaper and quicker, than if it could be transported directly East across the northern portion of the United States to New York. For years past the Central Pacific have had their surveyors in this field, and work on the new road will commence during this year. At last accounts the Co. was undecided as to whether they would build from Reno or Winnemucca, and didn't know but that they might take a hand in both projects.

It is thought that Conkling will not want to be Chairman of the Committee on Commerce, as that would bring him into frequent interviews with Blaine. The nomination of Stanley Matthews occasioned some surprise in the Senate, and it is evident that it will meet with strong opposition.

SEC. 2. Section Five of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section Five. If from any cause the regular panel of trial jurors should not be drawn and summoned to attend the term of the District Court, as provided in Section Four of this Act, or a sufficient number of jurors fail to appear, or when, at any time during the term of a District Court, it shall become necessary to summon additional trial jurors, the Court may, in its discretion, draw from the box such number of names as may be requisite, or may issue an open venire, directed to the Sheriff, to summon, either immediately or for a day fixed, from citizens of the county, but not from the bystanders, a sufficient number of persons, having the qualifications of jurors, to complete the trial jury or form a new trial jury, as the case may be. The persons thus summoned shall be as competent trial jurors, in all respects, as if drawn from the jury box or summoned before the commencement of the trial.

SEC. 3. Section Six of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section Six. When a juror drawn is not summoned, or fails to appear, or after appearing is excused by the Judge from serving, his name shall be returned to the box to be drawn again.

Section Seven. When all the names in the jury box have been exhausted, or whenever the Judge deems that the jury box should be reformed, by placing therein anew the names of jurors, it shall be the duty of the Judge and Clerk to replace in the jury box separate slips of paper containing the names of all persons included in the corrected jury list, and thereafter trial jurors may be drawn therefrom as before.

SEC. 5. All Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with the foregoing Act are hereby repealed.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Stocks show a slight improvement.

Bear in mind the "social" this evening at the Congregational Church.

Rumored that Ed. Vesey will give up the Lake House, and remove to Sierra Valley.

Strawberries are on sale in San Francisco. We shall probably have them here soon.

The overland train from the East was six hours late last night, caused by the trouble on the Union Pacific.

Sheriff Walker has rented the Wilcox house, and will hereafter sit beneath the shadows of his own vines and fig trees.

Lieut. Gov. Jewett Adams was a passenger for the Bay last night. He will loiter by the seashore for a day or two, and then leave for a short visit to Texas. Bon voyage, Gov.

All the favorite brands of lager beer are constantly on hand at the Oasis saloon; also, the best of wines and liquors. A fine free lunch is set out for the accommodation of customers, and the same old brand of extra fine bit cigars are still kept. Bechtel is still at the helm.

Surprise Party.

A large number of Dr. Dawson's friends invaded his household last evening, surprising him so that he was not master in his own home until a very late hour. Needless to say that all hands had a jolly time.

Snowing.

It was very plain yesterday afternoon that another storm was brewing, and that it was then snowing on the Summit. The flakes commenced to fall in Reno shortly after 8 last night, and in a short time the ground was covered.

Dismissed.

The case against Peter Dalton, mention of which has been previously made in these columns, was dismissed by Justice Young yesterday, it being shown in the course of the trial that the alleged crime had been committed over a year ago, and was therefore barred by the Statute of limitations.

D. Banks McKenzie, the temperance lecturer and founder of the Reform Club in this city, was to within a few months ago pastor of the Baptist Church. According to the Carson Appeal, Dr. McKenzie has forsaken the pulpit for the stage, he having appeared in Salt Lake last week as "Macbeth," with limited success.

Suicide at Palisade.

Horace E. Ladd, aged fifty-three years, was found hanging by a strap in his wood-house at Palisade Sunday morning, by his youngest daughter, who went to procure fuel. From the appearances, the act was committed very early. He was universally loved for his honesty and good qualities as a man, and was a good citizen.

New Laws.

Among the laws published this morning is one providing for making monthly counts of money in county treasuries. The second, provides for the taking of the oath of office by the Governor and Lieutenant Governor before a Justice of the Supreme Court, instead of in the presence of the Legislature, this change being necessary on account of the change proposed in the meeting of the Legislature in February instead of January. A "relief" bill for Z. S. Eldredge is the next one. Another is a simple manner for releasing a mortgage. The next an important one concerning juries.

INSANE ASYLUM.

Meeting and Proceedings of the Board of Commissioners Yesterday.

The Board of Commissioners for the care of the Insane met at Carson yesterday. Present—Gov. Kinkaid, Lieut. Gov. Adams, Controller Hallock, Treasurer Crockett, G. W. Huffaker and W. E. F. Deal.

Advertisements for plans and specifications for the new Insane Asylum were ordered published in the Virginia Chronicle, Reno Journal and San Francisco Bulletin.

On motion it was decided that the building should not exceed in cost $60,000, and that $1,000 should be given to the Architect whose plans should be accepted.

The time in which plans should be furnished was set at April 21st.

On motion it was decided that the Board should visit the State Grounds at Reno on the 23d inst. and select the site for the Asylum.

The Board adjourned until April 21st.

The Purim Feast.

In accordance with a time-honored custom our Reno Jews are commemorating their Purim festival. Purim is celebrated by them as days of entertainment and joy, in sending presents to each other and in bestowing alms upon the poor and unfortunate. The festival is held in commemoration of Queen Esther of Persia, wife of Ahasuerus, for delivering the Jews from a general massacre throughout the Persian Empire. History says that the King of Persia allowed himself to be persuaded by his Minister Haman, a man who was greatly incensed against the Jews for their independence, and particularly so against a certain Jew by the name of Mordecai, Esther's father, to consent that all the Jews in the dominion should be killed. Esther brought her persuasive powers to bear upon the King and succeeded in swerving him in his course, greatly imperiling her own life in the undertaking; nevertheless she saved her people, and Haman was hanged on the gallows prepared for Mordecai, and Mordecai and Esther then introduced the fast of the 13th of Adar, "the Day of danger and Festival of Purim," to commemorate the saving of the people and the destruction of their enemies. It is a custom among Jews during the Purim festival to refrain from singing psalms, not even those psalms which are usually sung at half festivals, being permitted.

The "Washoe Seeress."

Elias Owens, of Franktown, Washoe Valley, writes to say that Mrs. L. S. Bowers really did predict the breaking of the big reservoir some months before that accident occurred, even before the work on it was completed. He says: "She further foretold the end at which it would give way. She wished to go up to the reservoir that she might point out to me the defective part. I would have taken her up to the reservoir had not the storms prevented, the snow falling so deep that I could not get there with a team." Mr. Owens gives a number of instances in which the "Washoe Seeress" told him of accidents and the like long before they happened. Among other things he says: "She foretold the burning of Thomas Donnelly, in his cabin, a year or more beforehand. Donnelly was a section boss on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, who was supposed to have been murdered and his cabin fired to conceal the crime."

Nice Showing.

The very artistic display of everlasting flowers and fine toilet goods in the show window of Queen's drug store is attracting much attention and eliciting general praise. The center piece consists of an elegant celluloid set in a real Russian leather case; on either side arise tall waving plumes of brilliantly colored ornamental grass, while in front—straw and wicket baskets filled with everlasting flowers or Lubin's choicest toilet soaps, handsome cut glass bottles, neat bottles containing fragrant waters and exquisite perfumeries, beautiful toilet sets and many beautiful articles, forming altogether a very pleasing display. Richard evidently keeps the best of everything in his line and exhibits his goods in an attractive manner. We are pleased to note that he is building up a large business.

Dance at Huffaker's.

The people of Huffaker's have arranged for a dance to come off Friday night, for the benefit of T. H. Lambirth and family, who are now in Oregon, and have been afflicted with much sickness and other misfortunes. They formerly lived at Huffaker's. The dance will take place at Everett's Hall, and good music will be provided from town. Tickets, including supper, $1.

Great Four-Mile Race.

The Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association is arranging for a great four-mile and repeat race for the coming Fall, and some of the members believe that a purse of $10,000 can be raised by subscription, which added to the entries $1,000 each, half forfeit, and $100 only if declared out before the 1st of August, would form one of the greatest prizes in the country.

Assemblyman Adams Shot

James Adams, Superintendent of the Silver Lick mine, at Eureka, Nevada, was shot, and without doubt, fatally wounded Monday evening by Adolph Schroeder, a clerk in the business office of the Evening Bulletin. The affair took place in a saloon at the southeast corner of Montgomery and Merchant streets. Schroeder states that Adams was an old partner of his in business at Eureka; that a quarrel arose between them about a business matter, and that Adams, after applying opprobrious epithets, struck him and made a motion to draw a pistol, when he (Schroeder) opened fire. Adams denies having made any hostile demonstration. One bullet entered Adams' abdomen and another pierced his wrist.

Adams, who was shot by Schroeder has made an ante-mortem statement to the general effect that he was Superintendent of the Silver Lick mine; that during his absence from the mine as a member of the Nevada Legislature, Schroeder and other stockholders sought to change the management; that they met in a saloon Monday evening and talked the matter over, at first pleasantly and afterwards with some anger; that he started to move away, when Schroeder began shooting, firing four times; that he did not attempt to draw a pistol (a deringer) till after the third shot. "Cap." Adams, as he was called in Carson during the session of the Legislature, was a representative from Eureka, and proved himself a first-class member.

Jack Ryan was yesterday morning sentenced to pay a fine of $40, or go to jail for twenty days. He accepted the latter proposition.

The public have always been lacking confidence in pawnbrokers' shops, from the fact that they were here to-day and away to-morrow, they having no regard for the patronage of their customers, merely trying to take advantage whenever they could. We must note one exception in this State, and that is the establishment of Uncle Harris, the celebrated pioneer, No. 221 Kearney street, between Bush and Sutter.
